

Global Horizons with TUM SEED Center: Explore, Engage, Empower

Semester Abroad

- Exchange at one of the TUM SEED Center Partner Universities
- Duration: max 3 months
- Process and selection by the TUM Global Office:
<https://www.international.tum.de/global/tumexchange-seed/>
- Interest in Sustainable Energy and Sustainable Entrepreneurship
- You will have the opportunity to engage and contribute to the TUM SEED Center offices and connect with the Student Initiative Funders

Bachelor and Master Thesis

- Thesis topics are aligned with current SEED Center Research: Mini-grid developers, Electric Mobility, and Community Entrepreneurship.
- Available topics are published online:
<https://www.ie.mgt.tum.de/en/sustainability/teaching/writing-your-thesis-at-our-chair/>
- Requirements: Advanced Seminar Sustainable Entrepreneurship Theoretical Foundation (MT), Corporate Sustainability (BT) with a grade of 2 or above
- Data collection research stays: min 23 days

Project studies

- Topics are co-created with TUM SEED Center Stakeholders
- Practical problems with academic rigor
- Recent project: Social Impact Measurement Framework for mini-grid developers in India
- Outputs: written report and presentation to the partner organization
- Contact person: alessia.argiolas@tum.de

Student Assistant

- Gain practical experience in project management
- Join a dynamic international team
- Travel abroad for TUM SEED events (Annual Symposium in Nairobi)
- Opportunities are regularly published on our LinkedIn page
- Contact person: lara.knödler@tum.de

Contacts

- For general inquiries, please contact us at seed-center@tum.de;
- For inquiries regarding the TUM SEED Center academic, research, and studies, please contact alessia.argiolas@tum.de;

Q&A